Medical Emergencies and Transportation of Injured/Ill Employees

Conscious Individual

- Call for an ambulance (911), if requested by the individual. When reporting the emergency provide the following information:
  - Type of Emergency
  - Location of the Victim
  - Condition of the Victim
  - Any dangerous conditions

- If the injury or illness is serious enough to seek medical treatment and the employee is not able to self-transport to the Stennis Occupational Health Clinic located in Building 1100, Emergency (911) should be initiated and transportation provided by Stennis Space Center Emergency Response Personnel.

- Because of liability issues and possible medical complications during transportation, NSSC discourages supervisors and co-workers from transporting injured or ill employees.

Unconscious Individual

- Immediately call an ambulance (911). When reporting the emergency provide the following information:
  - Type of Emergency
  - Location of the Victim
  - Condition of the Victim
  - Any dangerous conditions

- Do not move the individual unless authorized by medical authority, or it is obvious that delay in movement could be detrimental to the individual.

- When an ambulance is requested, please ask a fellow employee to wait outside the building to flag the ambulance down and direct emergency personnel to the location of the injured individual.
